

PROJECT: Guaranteed Energy Performance Contracting

GOVERNMENT: Cook County, Ill.

DESCRIPTION: An energy conservation project to upgrade two county facilities (a hospital and DOC campus) in order to make them more efficient, the project is expected to yield $4.1 million in savings over its 20-year contract period.

TOTAL BUDGET: $60,725,853

BUDGET BREAKDOWN:

	Hospital	Department of Corrections
2013:	$11,409,333	$8,832,618
2014:	$11,409,333	$8,832,618
2015:	$11,409,333	$8,832,618

PROJECT: Competitive Renewable Energy Zone Transmission Line

GOVERNMENT: Garland, Texas

DESCRIPTION: Garland's contribution to a more than $7 billion wind power project, once completed, the build-out will cover nearly 3,600 miles and will be able to send 18,500 megawatts of wind power across Texas.

TOTAL BUDGET: $110,868,000

BUDGET BREAKDOWN:

2012:	$19,734,000
2013:	$91,134,000

Govalytics, a sales and marketing tool for companies looking to work with local governments, uses MSA data to benchmark municipal spending in various capacities. For more information, visit www.govalytics.com